SECONDARY SCHOOLS

At Alexander Adventures we bring you the very best in adventure sports from canoeing, paddleboarding, archery, coasteering and much more.

We provide high-quality, accredited outdoor sessions for young people. Engaging in outdoor activities is not only good for the mind and body but also boosts confidence whilst learning new skills and gaining experience within the sector. With our outstanding instructors and wide variety of activities you can be sure of an adventure experience of a lifetime.

We have a vast experience of facilitating residential adventure programmes both in UK and overseas.

Our outdoor activities for secondary schools are suitable for Year 7 and above and cater for all ages and abilities. You can choose from a wide range of options, from onsite to delivery to off-site and residential packages.

All our team members are qualified outdoor leaders who believe that outdoor learning is an invaluable part of your students' learning. Rest assured; we hold an AALA license for all the licensable activities that we offer.

Our secondary school activities focus on skills such as cooperation, communication and teamwork, which can be useful for students struggling with the primary-secondary transition.
