SPEND SOME TIME ON

THE RIVER TYNE

As you paddle down the River Tyne from Wark to Chollerford, you'll be treated to breathtaking scenery. The journey offers a mix of serene waters through picturesque countryside and the exhilaration of white water rapids. You'll have the opportunity to enjoy the stunning Northumberland National Park, with its rolling hills and lush landscapes.

The River Tyne in this section provides a variety of white water challenges. While some areas are calm and peaceful, others feature fast-moving waters and thrilling grade II-III rapids. Whether you're a seasoned paddler or looking to test your skills, this route offers excitement and adventure.
